Richard Florsheim (American, 1916 - 1979)
Night Haven, ca. 1950s
Oil and encaustic on Masonite, in original frame
6 x 18 inches (framed 12 x 24 inches)
Signed R.A. Florsheim, lower left; titled on reverse.
#16064

Richard Florsheim

Richard Florsheim was born in Chicago to the wealthy Florsheim Shoe family. He studied at the University of Chicago and continued his studies in France, Italy. During WWII, Florsheim served in the U.S. Navy, where he worked a a cartographer. He exhibited at Milwaukee Art Institute and Layton School of Art in Milwaukee, WI. His works can be found in the collection of the Art Institute of Chicago. In 1979, Florsheim died in Chicago at the age of 63.