Rolf Gösta Calmeyer

Rolf Gösta Calmeyer was born in New York in 1927. His parents, who were originally from Sweden and Norway, moved to Stockholm with him in 1928. Calmeyer's father had been a notable industrial designer, who designed the "cobra telephone". Calmeyer also painted under the name Nystedt Lysell. He was best known as a Swedish illustrator and fine artist.

He died in 2022.
